

Family Communication Plan

In an emergency, communication is crucial to ensure the safety and well-being of your family. This family communication plan will help you establish reliable communication methods, important contacts, and protocols to stay connected.

1. Family Information

Family Name: _____

Phone Number: _____

Address: _____

Date: _____

2. Emergency Contacts

Primary Contact Name: _____

Phone Number: _____

Email Address: _____

Secondary Contact Name: _____

Phone Number: _____

Email Address: _____

3. Meeting Places

1. Near the Home: _____

Address: _____

2. Outside Neighborhood: _____

Address: _____

3. Out of Town: _____

Address: _____

4. Communication Methods

1. Text Messages: Use text messages when phone lines are overloaded.
2. Social Media: Use social media to update your status and share your location.
3. Emergency Apps: List any emergency communication apps your family uses:

4. Radio Communication: If cell service is unavailable, use:

Radio Channel: _____

5. Out-of-Area Contact

Choose an out-of-area contact that each family member can check in with if separated during an emergency. This person can help coordinate communication and provide updates.

Contact Name: _____

Phone Number: _____

Email Address: _____

6. Important Information for Family Members

1. Family Member Name: _____

Phone Number: _____

Medical Needs: _____

2. Family Member Name: _____

Phone Number: _____

Medical Needs: _____

7. Practice Drills

Practice your family communication plan regularly to ensure everyone knows how to respond during an emergency. Schedule practice drills at least twice a year and review your plan as needed.

Conclusion

A family communication plan helps ensure that everyone stays connected and knows what to do during an emergency. Keep a copy of this plan in an easily accessible location and update it regularly as contact information changes.